TERRANOVA GIRL TELLS TERRIBLE STORY TO JURY DODGERS TRY BATTING RALLY

legsboth of the first of the colors of the first of the colors and flutes of the matter of the voices and flutes of the wide and so we say flutes of the winds of the said. He wanted to prove by limit the said the voices and flutes of the winds of the said the voices and flutes of the winds of the said the voices and flutes of the winds of the said the voices and flutes of the winds of the said the voices and flutes of the winds of the said the gestaires. Lold of her macried life of three weeks.

"I was very happy," she said, leaning forward in her chair. "He love me and I love him. Then in three weeks we go to pay our visit to my uncle and annit. My nicle look at me and say to my hisband." This sended the direct examination, we follow the my hisband: This sended the got the witness to my hisband look at me and say to my hisband look at me, and I have a finany feeling in any acid and something seemed to lump out of my mind. Then my hisband look at me, and I have a finany feeling in my acid and something seemed to lump out of my mind. Then my hisband look at me, and I have a finany will "no! live with this girl more than one more week. When you get home you remind her explain. My husband look at me and say to my instance here explain. My husband look at me and say nothing.

When the court adjoirmed for the noon recess it was reported that Justice Scott might exclude women from the count-indignation. The mon recess it was reported that Justice Scott might exclude women from the count-room this afternoon. The girl's story was the most repuisive, in some of its details, that has ever been heard within the walls of the Criminal Court Building.

But alas' the rumor that the railbirds.

Under Mr. Ely's Fire.

Under Mr. Ely's Fire.

I'I see ded the direct examination. Are shed th heard within the walls of the Criminal Court Building.

But alas' the rumor that the railbirds were to be excluded was antrue. They were on hand—more of them than ever and greedler for hustiness.

The presoure and recovered from her earlier stage fright and was bubbling over in her anxiety to talk. Sometimes she began her alies to before her law yer had finished pulling the questions. She talked so fast that often it was hard to catch her words. She had for catch her words. She had to catch her words. She had to catch her words. She had been about a was effered with the siri mode no naswer.

Q. Did you say your prayers at night:

A less I say them every night.

Here Justice Coult took a hand and interrogated Discipline. He wanted to know it she sail her prayers while she late to live with the Riggios, replied the girl. The Right further along Ely asked this question:

Q. What did the voice which you have to stimony was unfinished wenen were thick as wasps around a honey pot.

Ex-Judge John Palmieri proceeded to girl on the stand. He beran by tecalling Miss Melchoro Faruilo, sister of Josephine's husband, here divided with the voice which you had some for pattern of Josephine's husband, here girl made no naswer.

Q. When did you first here they be women were thick as wasps around a honey pot.

Ex-Judge John Palmieri proceeded to girl on the stand. He beran by tecalling Miss Melchoro Faruilo, sister of Josephine's husband, here girl on the stand.

Re beran by tecalling Miss Melchoro Faruilo, sister of Josephine's husband, here girl made no naswer.

Q. When did you first here they be women were thick as wasps around a honey pot.

Ex-Judge John Palmieri proceeded to girl on the stand. He beran by tecalling Miss Melchoro Faruilo, sister of Josephine's husband, here girl on the stand.

Re beran by tecalling women were thick as wasps around a honey pot.

Ex-Judge John Palmieri proceeded to women were thick as wasps around a honey pot.

Ex-Judge John Palmieri proceeded to with the word with the word with the word women

"I HEARD THE VOICE OF GOD SAY KILL HIM."

Priyed for Their Death.

Priyed since • un were looked up. A Yes. At night they come to me in me size.

Priyed for Their Death.

Priyed for Their Death.

Priyed for Their Death.

Priyed since • un were looked up. A Yes. At night they come to me in me size.

Priyed for Their Death.

Priyed for Th

of Itsafed rout A. Fitzer in October

riest, because the priest would tead ar wrong things. Then Riggio said uncle in front of her and heard voices crying out, 'Kill him!' I told her she was mad and she replied, 'I am not mad; it is the voice of God that I hear.'

This happened at least twice."

Macdonald, of New York, by five up and four to play.

P. L. MacLeay, of Oregon, and W. E. Fairlie had a neck and neck struggle.

Chides Girl's Counsel.

Chides Giri's Counsel.

During the cross-examination of this witness Justice Scott scoided Judge Palmieri. There was a dispute between Palmieri and Ely over the admission as evidence of a copy of Farulio's testimony at the Coroner's inquest.

"I am willing to offer all the statements made at the inquest," said Judge Palmieri. "I am ready to call your blust right now."

"Judge Palmieri, that is a very improper remark," said Justice Scott. This is a serious issue. Gampling and sporting terms are out of place here."

Judge Palmieri read the statement of Farulio. It showed that at the inquest sporting terms are out of place here."

Judge Palmieri read the statement of Farulio for showing and said. "When we all went to the Riggios for the feast two weeks after the wedding. Riggio turned to Josephine and said to her husband. Glaseppe, I gave you that flower, but I covet her. She was born on Good Friday, and girls born on that day cannot be virinous." Thereupon Josephine turned color."

A story of how she had been deceived by a Jefferson Market Police Court liwyer saved Annie Flanagan, a pretty little girl, from sentence in the Court of Market Police Court of the Parallel Section of the Paralle Josephine's faster-parents.

MURDERER JOHNSON

ROSEBEN SPREAD A

Owner and Trainer Criticised for Running Gelding Out of Distance.

HOOF IN HANDICAP

HOYLAKE, England, May 22.—In the second round of the amateur golf Shampionship to-day C. C. Lengen beat C. B. Macdonald, of New York, by five up and ter 3. Time—1.28 2-5.

round and therefore had to play the from the bole. Fairlie, with his second shot, hit the hole and lay dead. Mac-Leay missed his put and was defeated. Cladstone, N. J., lost his balance and fell to the courtyard below. He was instantly killed.

little girl, from sentence in the Court of Miss Minnie Krauter, a pretty, trimby allor made young woman, came to the stand. She said she was truant officer in the public school on East Twa Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, where oscobine was once entered as a number of the was quickly excused, as she said the had never sent truant notices to the school of the flangan girl, she are transfer for the first street. According to the Flangan girl, she are transfer for the flangan girl, she are transfer from the flangan girl, she are transfer for the flangan girl, she are transfer from the flangan girl from the flanga

According to the Flanagan girl, she was approached upon her arraignment in Jefferson Market Court by a lawyer. who said he would guarintee to secure her discharge for $25. She did not have $25, but she had a $50 watch. This, she MUST DIE IN JULY. 25, but she had a $50 watch. This, she said, she gave to the lawyer, who took it out and pawned it for $20. She has the ticket.

The sixt flore from Home.

The first of the voice says all the time of the voice says and all the time of the voice of the vo

GIVES YANKEES ONCE MORE TO

With Lumley Back in Laporte and Moriarity Keeps Up Struggle as Ma-Game Donovan Is Sure of Victory.

THE BATTING ORDER.

TORONTO RACES.

TORONTO, May 22.-The races here day resulted as follows: FIRST RACE—Royal Window (7 to 2 nd even) 1. Chippewa (1 to 2 for place)
Silver Wedding 3. Time—1.13 4-5. SECOND RACE—Half a mile.—Festing (6 to 5 and 1 to 2) 1, Gilmier (1sto 2 for place) 2, Kilvin 3. Time—0.49 2-5. THIRD RACE—Seven-eighths of a mile.—Setauket (10 to 1 and 4 to 1) 1, Showman is to 1 for place) 2, The Don 3. Time-1.28 4-5. FOURTH RACE—One and one-eighth miles—Slaughter (2 to 5 and ou.) 1. Court Martial (out for place) 2. Cum-berland Lass 3. Time—1.56 2-5.

ETFTH RACE—Four and one-half fur-ongs.—My Bessle (3 to 1 and even) 1. Remo Swift (5 to 2 for place) 2, Jerry Barp 3. Time—0.553-5. SIXTH RACE—One mile.—Grevilla (3 to 1 and even) 1. Cadlehon (6 to 5 for place) 2. Arthur Cummer 3. Time—1.40 3-5.

WINDOW-WASHER KILLED. Street Building.

While washing windows on the sixth thoor of a building at No. 409 Pearl

OPPENHEIM, ELLINS & @

Millinery

150 Hats; Values $35.00 to $50.00...... 25.00

200 Hats; Values $20.00 to $35.00...... 15.00

200 Hats; exceptional value...... 10.00

Special. About 100 Hats..... 5.00

Broadway & Fifth Av., corner 21st St.

A GOOD LEAD

Get Busy with the Stick on Heights.

Seventh Inning.

LOUISVILLE RESULTS.

FOURTH RACE—One mile.—Princess irna (9 to 5 and 3 to 5) 1, Envoy (ever in place) 2, Daring 3, Time—1.42 1-5. FIFTH RACE—Four and one-half furigs.—Ingenue (5 to 2 and even) 1, Anna iskin (4 to 1 for place) 2, Black Flag Time—0.57 2-5.

DRAGGED BY AN AUTO.

Under the Machine.

STAMFORD, Conn., May 22 .- An au-William Murphy, a city employee, here to-day. Murphy was dragged beneath the auto 100 feet.

He is in the Stamford Hospital seriously hurt about the head and body.

Crosby was held by the police.

OLDEST MISSIONARY DEAD. BOSTON, Mass., May 22.-The Ameri

Mary E. Bissell, its oldest missionary died at Mahableshwar, Western India April 22. Mrs. Bissell was the widdy of Rev. Lemuel Bissell, D. D., and with her husband joined the Marathi mission in 1851.

INSANE MAN FIGHTS WITH

chine Speeds Miles on Lexington Avenue.

After shaving and as a deodorant of perspiration caused by athletic

THE DXYGEN TOILET POWDER. Cooling and Soothing. THE OXYGEN DOES IT.

SPECIAL FOR TUESDAY. ASSORTED NUT POUND 10C CHOCOLATE COVERED ALMONITAS POUND 15C SPECIAL FOR WEDNESDAY, MOLASSES COCOANUT RISSES. POUND 10C CHOCOLATE COVERED FOUND 15C

JOS SOR WEST FMAY. JOS SOR WEST FMAY. JOS SOR CHURCH ST PARK ROW & MASSAUST GOR SPRUCE ST

Brooklyn Branch, 467 Fulton St. PERSONALS.

MRS Y. C. D.—Arrived Tuesday, Sturievant Hotel, Room 232. Want you at once. FRANK. LOST, FOUND AND REWARDS. OST.—Gold bracelet, Sunday evening, Fort Anderson's dancing pavillon, North Heach; reward offered. Bracelet, Box 206, World.

HELP WANTED-FEMALE.

ouse; must be willing to go to seashore uring the summer. Apply 732 Madison st., posklyn. LAUNDRY WANTS-F. MALE. SHIRT IRONERS WANTED: first class; steady position. Nottag's Laundry, 1080 Fulton st. Brooklyn. WANTED-First-class family ironer. Dakota Steam Laundry Co. 124th st. & let av.

LAUNDRY WANTS-MALE. WANTED-Marker and sorter by Dakota Steam Laundry Co., 124th St. & 1st Ave.